

AMN Healthcare CEO Susan Salka Keynotes Becker's Hospital Review 3rd Annual Health IT + Revenue Cycle Conference

September 19, 2017

CHICAGO, Sep. 19, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Susan Salka, President and CEO of AMN Healthcare (NYSE: AMN), the leader and innovator in healthcare workforce solutions and staffing services, will be a keynote speaker at Becker's Hospital Review 3rd Annual Health IT + Revenue Cycle Conference.

This year's conference will bring together hospital and health system Chief Information Officers, IT Executives, and Revenue Cycle leaders to discuss and share new perspectives on the role of the CIO, data analytics, mobile health, electronic medical records issues, denials, and revenue cycle challenges and trends for the healthcare industry. The event will be held Sept. 21 – 23 in Chicago.

Susan will present on the topic of Innovative Collaborations, providing her personal insights and actionable takeaways on why working together with partners and sometimes competitors to identify and solve the biggest problems facing the healthcare industry leads to more successful outcomes for healthcare providers, professionals and patients.

"I am excited to speak with and learn from key healthcare decision makers on ways we can engage personally and professionally to advance healthcare delivery systems and support healthcare professionals," Salka said. "Becker's is a leading source of data, information, and news for industry leaders, and AMN is proud to be included alongside distinguished business influencers and thought leaders."

Salka is an active industry spokesperson in the healthcare and investment community, and has been one of the driving forces behind the company's strategic and operational success since joining the organization in 1990. Under her leadership, AMN healthcare has become the largest and most diversified healthcare workforce solutions and staffing company in the nation.

Other keynote speakers include luminaries such as President George W. Bush and Sugar Ray Leonard. Susan will be joined at the conference by Jackie Larson, President of Avantas, an AMN Healthcare company that specializes in predictive analytics for healthcare staffing. Both Susan and Jackie will be available for interviews at the event.
